

A picture says a thousand words

Sam a valuable community member

Sam initiated a response from Gold Coast Citizens for the Victorian Bush Fire Survivors

- She organised the dispatching of over 2000 cleaned, sorted and boxed items to the tent cities

The Red Cross were stunned at the speed and volume that Sam organised in such a short space of time that they asked her to send goods to Far North Queensland who were suffering flooding at the time

- Sam and her team of over 300 volunteers dispatched 500 boxed items to the citizens of FNQ

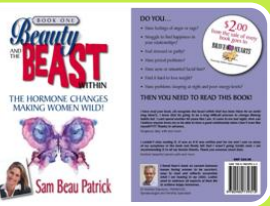

Sam was thanked individually by Whittlesea, Healesville and Marysville Mayors for her tireless efforts to ease the suffering of shock of those affected by the Vic Bush Fires in 2009.

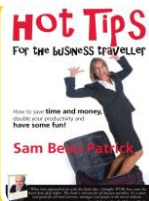

Sam was recognised on 1st April 2010 as one of the Gold Coasts inspirational mothers

Sam attends many networking and business functions - here with 4 Ingredients Cook Book sensation, Rachel Birmingham

Sam is now raising money for BRAVEHEARTS - a charity raising and counselling children of sexual abuse. $2 from every book sold, goes to bravehearts

Sam's first book is a corporate traveller book and Sam is still trying to meet with Sir Richard Branson to see if he would be interested in promoting the book on his airlines to raise money for kids in Asia and Africa through Paradise Kids

Sam is currently sending clothes to orphans through her clients and is hoping to take her 10 year old to a Thai orphanage in Sept/Oct this year. Her dream is to HOUSE, LOVE AND GIVE food to 65, 000, 000 orphans in Asia
